INVITATION TO EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING 2026

AC Immune

Letter to Shareholders

Dear Shareholders,

At AC Immune, we have had a busy few months since our Annual General Meeting (AGM) in June following Andrea Pfeifer's retirement after co-founding the company 23 years ago. The management transition is progressing well, and we have continued to progress our pipeline as reflected by important updates, including:

- FDA Fast Track designation for ACI-7104, our anti-a-syn active immunotherapy being developed for early Parkinson's disease. Complete data to week 100 for Part 1 of the VacSYn Phase 2 study will be reported in the near future and inform next steps for the development program;
- Initial Phase 1 results were reported for ACI-19764, our NLRP3 inhibitor, being assessed for safety in healthy volunteers. Dosing of patients with cardiovascular risk factors has commenced in a Phase 1b portion of the trial with initial results on inhibition of inflammation as measured by hsCRP reduction expected around year end;
- the 12-month safety and immunogenicity of our ACI-24 anti-Abeta active immunotherapy in the Phase 1b/2 ABATE trial in Alzheimer's disease in collaboration with Takeda, which continues to be evaluated in an additional patient cohort with an additional adjuvant to enhance antibody responses.

These are exciting times for the company, and the Board is eager to capitalize on the positive momentum created by the strong pipeline and operational developments.

We invite you to this Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) to propose the election of Tom Graney to the Board of Directors (Board) and the Audit and Finance Committee (AFC). We believe his long-standing CFO, CEO and biotech board experience combined with deep US public market and investor know-how will be highly complementary to the existing Board members and further strengthen our committees. In addition, Tom Graney is already familiar with AC Immune thanks to his prior mandate as Board member from 2016 until 2023.

Carl June has decided to step down from the Board and AFC with effect from the EGM. We thank him sincerely for his contributions to the Board and wish him well in his future endeavors.

We look forward to meeting with you in person at our EGM on Friday, 2 October 2026, and thank you again for your ongoing support. If you cannot attend, we encourage you to exercise your voting rights through the Independent Proxy.

Yours sincerely,

Martin Zügel	Monika Bütler
Chair & Interim CEO	Vice-Chair
